

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

April 15, 1999 LB 43

twelve, a motion to adjourn until next Monday morning. And if it causes some inconvenience, I apologize to all of you, but I think our first job, and everybody will understand this, is to get the business of the Legislature done. And there's an awful lot of work on the agenda. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Lynch. (Visitors introduced.) Senator Chambers, do you wish to be recognized for a point of personal privilege?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, I would. Mr. President, members of the Legislature, Senator Lynch's apology for everybody does not include me. I will never apologize to anybody for doing the job that I took an oath to carry out.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Lynch, do you wish to be recognized for a point of personal privilege?

SENATOR LYNCH: Yeah, just for clarification. If I offended anybody on the floor, by apologizing for them, I'm sorry, but I really didn't intend to do that. And in fact what I apologized for was for the inconvenience of all those elected officials who are here from around the state who were going to attend the County Officials luncheon. And anybody else can take it any way they want to.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Lynch. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 43, Select File. No E & R amendments. Senator Brashear would move to amend with AM1118. (AM1118, printed separately.)

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Brashear, you're recognized for your motion to amend LB 43.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Mr. President, thank you. Members of the body, AM1118 is a long, 30-page amendment. But I beg your
